

"I am absolutely pleased with my selection of artwork for the exhibit which represents a mastering of the techniques and a mature artistic expression of each artist. The selection of awarded work represents a diverse group of artwork with a high quality of technique, composition, expression and artistic concept. Either selection or rejection should be taken as a constructive way for every artist to continue mastering and learning the language of every technique and a positive encouragement to pursuit a personal and mature artistic expression.

Thanks to "The Artists Guild" for the opportunity to jury such a great collection".

Chris Lopez, Juror
